

Don't Fall Out

This is the time of year that the leaves fall. It is the time of year that we fall back an hour to Eastern Standard Time. It is the time we transition from summer to winter. We rake the leaves, maybe mow the yard a few more times. Then there is little yard work except to pick up a few sticks after a storm, or possibly shovel snow (we can only hope).

The autumn season is a life transition time. Life transitions are times people change their activities, their routine, and possibly even their priorities. Some people, when they move to a new area, quit going to church. Because of all else that is happening, changing, etc. they get out of the habit of church, they fail to find a new church home.

There are many such life transitions, and all can lead to a falling away from spiritual devotions and activities. I urge to be on guard against this danger. Be disciplined in your prayers, attending church, and acts of service for others. Make sure that this time of transition has you becoming strong in devotion to Christ.
